

DEVELOPMENT OF PHILANTHROPY From the Guidelines

The Trust's grants in this field seek to increase philanthropy in New England. The Trust is interested in supporting projects which will:

- ◆ encourage the development and expansion of community foundations
- ◆ increase philanthropic resources in underserved areas, and
- ◆ provide modest support for certain special efforts of philanthropic donors

Associated Grant Makers (AGM)

Boston, MA www.agmconnect.org
Ron Ancrum, President

2001: $30,000

Giving New England, a regional initiative to promote philanthropy in New England. Final total: $80,000.

2002: $30,000

To support AGM's ability to promote philanthropy, by incorporating the operations and objectives of Giving Network (formerly Giving New England) into AGM. Final total: $30,000.

2001: $13,400

Membership support for AGM. Final total: $13,400. D.F.

2002: $10,500

Membership support for AGM. Final total: $10,500. D.F.

Associated Grant Makers (AGM) f/b/o Boston Education Funders Group

Boston, MA www.agmconnect.org
Ron Ancrum, President

2001: $1,500

2002: $1,500

Support for a group of corporate and foundation trustees and staff interested in the Boston Public Schools. Final total: $1,500 per year. D.F.

Associated Grant Makers (AGM) f/b/o Summer Fund

Boston, MA www.agmconnect.org
Stephanie Cheney, Summer Fund Manager

2001: $25,000

For summer camping opportunities for children through AGM's 2001 Summer Fund. Final total: $25,000

Berkshire Taconic Community Foundation

Great Barrington, MA
www.berkshiretaconic.org
Jennifer Dowley, President

2001: $20,000

A challenge grant to build educational endowments of 12 public school districts in Berkshire County. Total to date: $20,000 of $200,000 provisionally committed.

Connecticut Council for Philanthropy

Hartford, CT
www.ctphilanthropy.org
Nancy P. Roberts, President

2001: $25,000

The Connecticut Giving Project, the Council's statewide initiative to promote and expand philanthropy. Final total: $50,000.

Consultative Group on Biological Diversity, Inc.

San Francisco, CA www.cgbd.org
Lynn Lohr, Executive Director

2001-2002: $7,000

A national network of grantmakers working to promote grantmaking in biodiversity. Total: $3,500 of $7,000 provisionally committed. D.F.

Council on Foundations

Washington, DC www.cof.org
Dorothy S. Ridings, President and CEO

2001: $3,120

2002: $3,120

Membership dues in this national foundation affinity group. Final total: $3,120 per year. D.F.

Earth Share f/b/o Environmental Federation of New England d/b/a Earth Share of New England

Washington, DC
www.GreenForNewEngland.org
Steven Kravitz, CFO

2001-2002: $80,000

To implement a business plan for affiliation of the New England organization with Earth Share, to foster environmental philanthropy among new donors in the workplace. Final total: $80,000.

Environmental Grantmakers Association

New York, NY www.ega.org
Sarah Hansen, Executive Director

2001: $1,052

2002: $1,052

Annual membership to support the growth and effectiveness of environmental grantmaking. Final total: $1,052 per year. D.F.

Essex County Community Foundation

Topsfield, MA www.eccf.org
David Tory, President

2001-2002: $125,000

A challenge grant to build its discretionary endowment fund. Grant total to date: $150,000 of $200,000 provisionally committed.

Grantmakers in Health

Washington, DC www.gih.org
Lauren LeRoy, President and CEO

2001-2002: $4,000

Partnership with national, state and local health philanthropy. Final total: $4,000. D.F.

Grantmakers for Education

San Diego, CA www.edfunders.com
Bill Porter, Executive Director

2001: $1,000

2002: $1,000

Membership in this national organization for funders interested in education. Final total: $1,000 per year. D.F.

Greater Lowell Community Foundation

Lowell, MA www.glcfoundation.org
David Kronberg, Executive Director

2001: $65,000

A challenge grant to grow the community foundation for Lowell and the surrounding area. Final total: $200,000.

Maine Initiatives Inc.

Augusta, ME www.maineinitiatives.org
Deborah Felder, Executive Director

2002: $30,000

A challenge grant to build a permanent endowment. Grant total to date: $30,000 of up to $180,000 provisionally committed.

The Maine Philanthropy Center

Portland, ME www.megrants.org
Janet Henry, President

2001: $5,000

Support for a collaborative effort to establish the Maine Philanthropy Center. Final total: $15,000. D.F.

2002: $1,000

Annual membership dues in regional association of Maine grantmakers. Final total: $1,000. D.F.

MaineShare

Augusta, ME www.maineshare.org
William G. Childs, Executive Coordinator
2001-2002: $50,000

A strategic marketing plan to expand to additional Maine corporations, to expand grassroots support of progressive nonprofits through workplace giving. Final total: $50,000.

Middlesex County Community Foundation

Middletown, CT
www.middlesexcountycf.org
Patti Anne Vassia, Executive Director
2001-2002: $100,000

A challenge grant to expand and promote philanthropy in Middlesex County: Total to date: $100,000 of $150,000 provisionally committed.

Neighborhood Funders Group

Washington, D.C. www.nfg.org
Spencer Limbocker, Executive Director
2002: $500

Membership in a grantmaking association to support community-based efforts in low-income urban neighborhoods and rural communities. Final total: $500. D.F.

New Hampshire Community Loan Fund

Concord, NH www.nhclf.org
Juliana Eades, President
2001: $50,000

The Community Development Financial Institutions and Philanthropy Initiative in New England. Final total: $120,000.

Northern California Grantmakers f/b/o Grantmakers Concerned with Immigrants and Refugees

Sebastopol, CA www.gcir.org
Daranee Petsod, Principal Consultant
2001: $300
2002: $300

Membership in a national network of grantmakers focused on the needs of immigrants and refugees in the United States. Final total: $300 per year. D.F.

Union Community Fund

Washington, DC
www.unioncommunityfund.org
Jim Sessions, Executive Director
2001-2002: $90,000

A New England circuit rider to help local labor leadership organize local chapters of a community-based worker-owned charity: Final total: $90,000.

*=environmental health
+=environmental education
D.F.=discretionary fund

The Chatham fishing fleet at rest on a sunny winter's day at Aunt Lydia's cove in Chatham, MA.

Photo by Peter Baker courtesy of the Cape Cod Commercial Hook Fisherman's Association.

